

Grace Borrowows

29/05/05 to 17/03/07

Trying to put down in words what Grace meant to us, and how much we miss her, is an almost impossible task.

Grace - our beautiful daughter, big blue eyes, wispy blonde hair and those perfect little teeth. She had such a beautiful, engaging smile, even at times when you would think she didn't feel like smiling at all, there was always one there. Loved so much by us, her big brother Joshua and all our family, she was an incredibly special little girl.

There is, and always will be, an empty space in our lives, that nothing can ever fill, and for that reason part of us will always be sad. But we hold onto the many happy memories of the times we shared with Grace, the unconditional love she gave us, and the immense courage she showed.

We can think of the very many happy times. The things she did that made us smile and laugh. Grace liked music and would do her own little dance when she heard a song she liked, and like all children, every new achievement gave us so much pleasure. The things that we took for granted, now have a special place in our hearts. The holidays we shared and the favourite places we visited together, all of these memories make us smile.

We have set up this tribute fund in Grace's name because we know how hard it is for the individuals and families who experience metabolic diseases. We hope that one day there will be cures for these terrible diseases, but until that time, that there is continued support, help and love for the families affected by them.

Thank you to everyone who has supported us over the last 2 years.

You can shed tears that Grace is gone, or you can smile because she lived.

You can close your eyes and pray she will come back, or you can open your eyes and see all she has left.

Your heart can be empty because you can't see her, or you can be full of the love you shared

You can turn your back on tomorrow and live for yesterday, or you can be happy for tomorrow because of yesterday

You can remember Grace and only that she is gone, or you can cherish her memory and let it live on

You can cry, close your mind, be empty and turn your back,

Or you can do what Grace would want, smile, open your eyes, love and go on.

Anon.

Rest in Peace Grace, our beautiful angel.
