

Jessica Laura Elizabeth Drury

1989-1993

Endeared all who met her with her sunny disposition and zest for life. She was a true inspiration to us all, never allowing her illness to dampen her spirits and prevent her from joining in during her short life. We would also like to commend Jessica's older sister Hannah who showed patience and fortitude when Jessica's illness impacted on her young life. We are very proud of both of our children. Janet and David Drury.
